THE DILEMMA AND YOUR GUIDE

When you are pulled into time use that doesn't match your values or what you enjoy, you feel empty and wonder, “Is this all there is?” I understand where you are. I lived this experience, and was successful on the outside yet felt an internal void. I was stuck. As a former President and CEO, I've held positions in all phases of executive leadership. I am certified to administer professional development tools and have a master's degree in education. I dug in and did the work to discover my Zone of Genius and will help you find yours. The more time you spend in your Zone of Genius, your productivity and satisfaction increases. You are happier, and you experience the meaning and purpose you are looking for. Join me for a leadership learning experience to define and begin practical steps for living into your Zone of Genius.
